

Field Plant Pathology (PI P 525), summer 2016

A highly interactive, 3 credit field course on diseases of fruit, vegetable, grain, forestry, and ornamental crops in Washington, real-world disease management practices, public and private research programs, state and federal regulatory agencies, crop consulting and extension education, professional communication, field trial experimental design, and plant disease case studies.

Dates of travel and instruction: 13-17 June and 11-15 July 2016

Instructor: Lindsey du Toit (dutoit@wsu.edu or 360-848-6140)

<http://plantpath.wsu.edu/students/courses/plp-525-field-plant-pathology-and-mycology/>

SLN # 06880

